Speereo Voice Organizer.Sapie: Special Price till 2010

We are glad to announce that our first Windows Mobile application is on sale during December, 2009.

We've corrected a rather steep (as of 2009) $40 price to a more realistic figure of 7 (correct, seven) US Dollars.

Now you can buy 3 useful utilities in one package without breaking your budget. It remains to be seen, how the pricing will change in 2010.

By the way, you can actually buy Voice Reminder & Voice Contact separately at 1/3 of the old price ($5 instead of $15).

To answer your question "Do I actually need it?" we provide 2 useful links:

1. Productivity test: Sapie is faster than Desktop Outlook!
2. Trial Download. You can download the evaluation and check whether above figures are relevant to your workflow.
